—Andrew Paisley who has been in Dakota for some time past has returned to this place.

—School books for sale at the EXPOSITOR BOOK STORE, first door north of the Masonic Hall.

—We had a snow storm on Tuesday. This probably will not be news to the people around here.

—Mrs. Robt Guy is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Gustavis Kimball, at Deleware, Ohio, at present.

—Parties wishing to rent Duffie's Hall will please call at this office as we have charge of the same.

—Remember the pink tea party next Thursday evening, Dec 4th. in the M. E. church. Come one, come all.

—A child's mitten has been found and left at this office. Owner can have the same by calling for it.

—Elder J. H. Paton will preach Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock and evening 7 o'clock in A. C. chapel.

—Aloiza Gray's barn and contents were burned on Sunday morning last. Cause unknown. Light insurance.

—Dr. Gowan has been limping around for the past few days in consequence of a fall which he received.

—J. S. Duffie has for sale cheap a coal stove, a parlor stove, a secretary, 2 large bureaus, and other furniture.

—Mrs Clint Haviland, of Minden City, visited with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. V. Ferguson, during the past week.

—To-day is Thanksgiving day. Let all return thanks for the many blessings they have had bestowed upon them the past year.

—Henry Rapley and family of Strathroy, Ont., are visiting with Thos Rapley and family and other friends in this place at present.

—When you want anything in the line of holiday presents call at the EXPOSITOR BOOK STORE one door north of the new Masonic Hall.

—P. S. McGregory, of Mt Clemens, spent Sunday and Monday in this place. He intends taking up his residence in York state soon.

—Jas Brown has been up at Alpena during the past week visiting friends and relatives. He informs us that the weather up there is rather cold.

—Call in and see the Remington Sewing Machine which we intended giving for the best 2 or 3 pound roll of butter. It is on exhibition at the EXPOSITOR BOOK STORE.

—Dr. G. S. Ney has decided to continue his practice in this place and has opened up an office in the little building near J. H. High's shoe shop. Notice his card in this issue.

—Albert Sanborn, Dug. McNutt, and one or two other Pt Huron boys are taking in the sport of hunting wild game in these parts at present. As to the amount of game captured it is needless to say; but you may bet it is large.

—Gowan & Drake, attorneys-at-law, have rented the room in the Duffie Block formerly occupied by J. S. Duffie.

—Miss Emma Ferguson, who has been visiting friends and relatives at Oscoda during the summer, came home to stay with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. V. Ferguson, for a while.

—Jas. Brown has established a notary public, conveyancing and insurance office in the EXPOSITOR Book Store building. Parties wanting anything done in this line will do well to give him a call.

—Cleveland's exact plurality in the state of New York, on the basis of the vote for the highest Democratic and the highest Republican elector, as ascertained and certified by the state board of canvassers, is 1,149.

—The Romeo Hydrant says:—"The day after it was settled that Cleveland was elected, beefsteak dropped from fifteen cents to a shilling per pound. There might have been other reasons but it dropped nevertheless."

—Don't forget to call at the EXPOSITOR BOOK STORE when you want anything in the line of school books, holiday novelties, fancy box paper, blanks of all kinds, in fact anything kept in a first-class book store.

—To anybody who has disease of throat or lungs, we will send proof that Piso's Cure for Consumption has cured the same complaints in other cases. Address, E. T. Hazeltine, Warren, Pa.

—Messrs Belles & Co., opened a skating rink in the Masonic Hall building on Saturday afternoon last. They will run the same afternoons and evenings and invite all to come and take part in the healthful enjoyment.

—The latest scheme for swindling the farmer, is to have him sign a petition for a reduction of taxes. In some sections this has been worked, and the husbandman's effort to relieve the country, has returned to him in the shape of a note of hand.

—Jas. Menzies, of the Brockway Centre EXPOSITOR, has purchased the stock and furniture of J. S. Duffie's book store at that place, and will run the same in connection with his print shop. "Jim" is enterprising, and bound to get to the front.—Armada Artisan.

—The average preacher makes a poor politician. And after he has played politician for a while he is even less useful as a preacher than he was before.—Detroit Times. This is rather hard on the Baptist minister in the Third district of this county.—Fort Gratiot Sun.

—Mrs. Bartle aged 71 years walks from her home, four and one-half miles northwest of Melvin, to that place and does her trading and walks home again. This we are informed is a common occurrence. How many of the young lasses of this vicinity are there who can accomplish this feat?

—This is the worst one yet; "Eight years ago a Fort Gratiot man registered a vow to the effect that he would not wear a white shirt until a Democratic President was elected. On Sunday he hastened to don a "boiled" garment, being too eager to wait for the official count.—Detroit Times."

—Capt F. B. Shepherd will give a grand Thanksgiving Ball at his hall in the Brockway House, Brockway, Mich this (Thursday) evening. He intends making this dance one of the best of the season and invites all to come and have a good time. An oyster supper will be furnished and the whole bill will only be $1.00

—We are obliged this week to chronicle the death or another of Brockway's respected citizens. Mrs. Clark Washburn, who departed this life last Friday morning. The husband of the deceased and his many friends and relatives have the sympathy of the whole community in his sad bereavement.

—Justice Bottomley administered the solemn oath of marriage to Mr. Thomas G. Schram, of Greenwood, and Miss Mary Kavanaugh, of Lynn, at his residence last Sunday evening. Miss K. is a sister of Mrs. M. Kelley, of this place, and is well known by many of our young people who unite in wishing her and hers unbounded joy and prosperity in decending the rugged hill of life.—Capac Argus.

—A down-east party has invented a new, double back-acting automatic safty attachment for skaters. It consists of a cushion containing a powerful spiral spring, and is attached to the skater so that when he or she accidentally sits down it breaks the momentum of the fall and the re-action of the spring sets them on their feet again. P. S.—This is not a paid ad. but is published as a hint to the patrons of Belles' rink, who should petition him to purchase a number for their benefit.

—There are lots of closets in this village filled with good clothing of all kinds, which will never be worn again for various reasons. There are also a number of families in Brockway Centre who will face the chilling blasts of this winter's winds, with scarcely enough clothing to keep the biting blasts from freezing the life out of their poorly clad bodies. Let the perspiring heathen be forgotten for a short time, while you perform a few christian acts at home. It will not hurt you, and it will make some one warm and happy.

—On the first page of the last issue of Frank Leslie's Weekly, is an illustration of the arrival, at the White House, of the aged and leg-wearied Democrat. The old fellow has thrown himself into the Presidential chair, and is "resting," with his feet on the fender, and his hat, labeled 1860, lying close by on the floor. His clothes are torn and tattered, his whiskers long, white and tangled, but the look of triumphant and peaceful rest on his countenance, as his eyes wander over the wine, and the fat turkey on the table, and the waiters standing by in respectful attitudes, defies description. Verily the old man has had a long and wearisome tramp, but he has reached the goal of all his hopes at last.—Romeo Observer.

—A pink tea party under the auspices of the Ladies Aid Society will be held in the M. E. church, on Thursday evening, December 4th. An attractive program of vocal and instrumental music, speeches and readings, is being prepared. All are invited. Doors open at 6:30 to commence at 7 o'clock sharp. Admission 25 cents.

Health Authorities Read.

(1734.) Sec. 43. Whenever any householder shall know that any person within his family is taken sick with the small-pox, or any other disease dangerous to the public health, he shall immediately give notice thereof to the board of health, or to the health officer of the township [city, or village*] in which he resides; and if he shall refuse or neglect to give such notice, he shall forfeit a sum not exceeding one hundred dollars.

(1735.) Sec. 45. Whenever any physician shall know that any person whom he is called to visit is infected with the small-pox, or any other disease dangerous to the public health, such physicians shall immediately give notice thereof to the board of health, or health officer of the township [city, or village*] in which such diseased person may be; and every physician who shall refuse or neglect to give such notice, shall forfeit, for each offense, a sum not less than fifty nor more than one hundred dollars.

Reception and Surprise.

Mrs Caroline Holden, wishing to welcome her son and newly made daughter-in-law home, gave them a surprise and reception at their home in this place on Wednesday evening. A number of friends and relatives were invited to participate in the enjoyment of the evening. Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Holden returned to this place on the six o'clock train from Pt Huron and were met at the station by a number of young folks who escorted them to the house, which they found all illuminated and a merry company within waiting to receive them with a hearty welcome. A bounteous supper was prepared by the hostess which was one of the pleasing features of the evening. The company dispersed about 10:30 wishing Mr. and Mrs. Holden many years of peace and prosperity.

Wedding Bells.

On Tuesday evening last a pleasant circle of friends and relatives assembled at the Rapley House, the event being the marriage of Miss Harriet Rapley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Rapley to Mr. Wallace Adams, two of Brockway Centre's highly respected young folks. Rev. J. W. Gray performed the solemn ceremony of joining this couple in the holy bonds of matrimony, after which the company repaired to the dining hall where a sumptuous wedding supper was prepared and all sat down and enjoyed the good things which was placed on the table before them. Mr. and Mrs. Adams left on the evening train for Detroit and other parts to visit friends and relatives. The whole community join in wishing them a long and prosperous wedded life. The bride was the recipient of many costly and useful presents.

OBITUARY.

Mrs. Susan Mustard beloved wife of Mr. Hugh Mustard was born in the town of Berta, Niagara district, Canada, on the 18th of October 1830. Was married to Hugh Mustard, of Ingersoll, Jan. 20, 1852. Since her marriage her home has been at Ingersoll. Mrs. Mustard was converted to the Christian religion in the year 1851 under the ministry of the Rev. Henry Taylor a methodist episcopal clergyman, of Canada. She has ever been a consistent member and to which she belonged at the time of her death. For a number of years she had been afflicted with lung difficulty and for the past two or three years often confined to her bed. About three months ago she came with her husband to visit their son, Mr. Geo H. Mustard of this place, but gradually growing weaker was finally confined to her bed and died Nov. 23 inst. She was a patient sufferer through all her years of affliction and in her last sickness showed her trust in God by leaning upon his promise. His word was her delight and her death proved its truthfulness that those who trust him need not fear "though they walk through the valley of the shadow of death." She died in great peace at 11 o'clock p. m Nov. 23, falling into the arms of death like a weary child into the arms of sleep She leaves a broken hearted husband and a son, our respected townsman, Geo H. Mustard, to mourn her loss. They have the sympathy of a great circle of friends and neighbors. Her funeral sermon was preached at the M. P. church, Nov. 25th, by Rev. J. W. Gray. Text:—Phil I, 23.

MARRIED.

ADAMS—RAPLEY—At the Rapley House, in Brockway Centre, on Tuesday evening, Nov. 25, by Rev. J. W. Gray, Wallace Adams to Miss Harriet Rapley both respected young folks of this place.

HOLDEN—WELLS—At the residence of Washington Hull, Strathroy, Ont., on Tuesday evening, Nov. 25th, by Rev. T. W. Blatchford, Cornelius R. Holden, of Brockway Centre, to Miss Mollie Wells of that place.

DIED.

CAMPBELL—At the residence of his sister, Mrs. Chas Holcomb, in this place on Saturday, Nov 22, Robert Campbell, aged 22 years.

Deceased has lived in this place for the past few years and has always been loved and respected by all his associates and it is with regret they learn of his death. For the past year or so he has been troubled with consumption, the effects of which caused his death. The funeral sermon was preached by Rev J. W. Gray in the M. P. church and his remains were taken to their last resting place in the McFadden cemetery.

Overstocked!
TERRIBLY
Overstocked!

When in the eastern markets the best goods were offered so much less than they were actually worth that we bought too many. It is our mistake, but

The People will get the Benefit. We shall Unload, and do it Quick.

OUR DRESS GOODS DEPARTMENT MUST TAKE IT.

We will sell you Blue or Jet Black, 48 inch Cashmere worth $1.15, for 89c and $1. 44-inch Cashmere for 83c.
We will sell Black Cashmere at 10c to 15c per yard. Less than value. Black Camel's Hair, 44 to 54 inches, at 50c on the Collar.
We will sell colored all wool Cashmeres at 50c, worth 65c to 75c.
We will sell Grey Mix Camel's Hair, worth 30c, at 15c. Black and Colored Silks, Brocades, &c., at 50c, 75c and 95c. Rich Cashmere Silks at great reductions.

FINE UNDERWEAR.

We have too much Fine Underwear. Ladies' Fine Scarlet and White Vests and Pants, worth $2 and $2 25, at $1 25 and $1 50. Ladies' Scarlet and White, worth $1 25 and $1.50, at $1. We offer the best Garment in white wool at 50c and 75c ever on a counter at such price.

UNLOAD! UNLOAD!!
Is What We Must Do!

We have weighed this matter in our mind. It is a terrible sacrifice, but unload we must. "Our Loss is the People's Gain." Competitors say we demoralize profits. The People are delighted to get good goods at their own prices. We shall bunch certain goods, and make one price on the lot. We shall mark down, down, until we lighten this load. Store open from 7 a. m. to 8 p. m., and Saturday night until 10 p. m. Give everyone a chance. Remember the place.
